

Women Caring for the Land

September 11th, 2021 at Susan and David Weigandt Farm

22880 Fancy Creek Lane - Richland Center, WI

Time: 9:30-3pm

Learn about forestry and conservation practices and network with other women in your community!

Susan and David Weigandt are active managers of their timber ground, completing timber stand improvement projects, harvests, plantings and invasive species control. They also pasture cows, have an oak savanna, plant trees and shrubs, and are placing a permanent conservation easement on the property.

RSVP with Britta at 608-647-8874 ext126
or bpetersen@pheasantsforever.org

Lunch will be provided or bring your own. Covid-19 safety guidelines will be followed.

USDA is an equal opportunity provider, employer and lender. Persons with disabilities who require accommodations to attend or participate in this meeting/event/function should contact Rob Lawson at (608) 662-4422 or Federal Relay Service at 1-800-877-8339 one week prior to the event

